

FREE WORKSHOP

*Epidemiology Careers – there are more options than you know!

Target Audience: Students, Early Career Investigators, Trainees, and Others Interested in Epidemiology Positions

At the: Annual Meeting of the AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EPIDEMIOLOGY (ACE)
Sunday, September 12, 2010 (1 - 5 pm)
Grand Hyatt - San Francisco, CA

**Sponsored by the ACE Mentoring Committee*

WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Facilitators: Stella Aslibekyan, MS, Brown University and Alberto Caban-Martinez, MPH, CPH, ABD, University of Miami

1:00 to 2:00 p.m. – Epidemiologists and their Flexible Careers
Senior epidemiologists reflect on careers that have spanned multiple settings

*John Acquavella, PhD, Amgen, Inc.
Robert Hiatt, MD, PhD, U. of California, San Francisco
Pauline Mendola, PhD, Centers for Disease Control
Sandy Sulsky, PhD, ENVIRON International Corp.*

2:00 to 2:45 p.m. – Roundtable Discussions- Part 1
Perspectives on flexible careers and preparing for epidemiology in different settings. Different tables with experts in each field will cover industry, academic, government and consulting settings.

2:45 to 3:00 p.m. – Break (with option to switch to new roundtable)

3:00 to 3:45 p.m. – Roundtable Discussions- Part 2
Continued discussion on flexible careers and preparing for epidemiology in different settings.

3:45 to 4:15 p.m. – Discussion Summaries

4:15 to 5:00 p.m. – Panel Discussion
Q&A with entire panel of experts

5:00 p.m. ACE reception

**Please contact Linda Cohen, MPH at LCC3@COMCAST.NET with questions about this event!*